RUUD, DE MINAUR & RUBLEV COMPLETE 2024 NITTO ATP FINALS FIELD

TURIN – With Novak Djokovic unable to compete due to injury, the field for the 2024 Nitto ATP Finals is now set. Casper Ruud, Alex de Minaur and Andrey Rublev have claimed the final three singles positions at the season finale, which will be played at the Inalpi Arena in Turin from 10-17 November.

The stars will join Jannik Sinner, Alexander Zverev, Carlos Alcaraz, Daniil Medvedev and Taylor Fritz in the field.

Ruud returns to the year-end championships two years after claiming one of the best results of his career at the tournament. The Norwegian reached the title decider at the 2022 Nitto ATP Finals and will make his third overall appearance in the prestigious event.

De Minaur is set to debut at the Nitto ATP Finals and become the first Australian singles player to compete in the season finale since former No. 1 in the PIF ATP Rankings Lleyton Hewitt made the final in 2004.

Rublev will make his fifth consecutive appearance in the season finale. After participating in the event's final year in London, he has qualified for all four editions held in Turin.

This year's Nitto ATP Finals will award $15.25 million in prize money, with the singles champion having the chance to earn a record-breaking $4.8 million — the largest winner's prize on the men's tour — if he lifts the trophy without losing a match.

ATP Chairman Andrea Gaudenzi said: "Many congratulations to all the players who have earned the right to battle for the last title of the season at the 2024 Nitto ATP Finals. After an incredible year, the best in tennis are headed to Turin for what promises to be an unforgettable showdown. With the biggest winner's prize purse on the men's tour and one of the sport's most prestigious titles on the line, this event is the ultimate stage to cap off a thrilling season."

Nitto ATP FINALS

NEWS RELEASE

All eight players in the field have previously qualified for or competed in the Next Gen ATP Finals presented by PIF. Sinner (2019) and Alcaraz (2021) are former champions of the event, while De Minaur twice made the final (2018-19) and Rublev also advanced to the championship match (2017). It is also the first year in which all eight singles players have been in their 20s since 2010.

Medvedev and Zverev are the two players in the field who have previously won the Nitto ATP Finals. Medvedev triumphed in the event's final year in London (2020), and Zverev was victorious in 2018 and 2021.

Sinner, Alcaraz and Medvedev have reached No. 1 in the PIF ATP Rankings. Sinner has already clinched ATP Year-End No. 1 presented by PIF honours, becoming the first Italian to achieve the feat.

The doubles field is also set. Marcelo Arevalo/Mate Pavic, Marcel Granollers/Horacio Zeballos, Wesley Koolhof/Nikola Pietrangeli, Simone Bolelli/Andrea Vavassori, Max Purcell/Jordan Thompson, Rohan Bopanna/Matthew Ebden, Harri Heliövaara/Henry Patten and Kevin Krawietz/Tim Puetz will compete for the title at the Inalpi Arena.

DRAW CEREMONY

This will be the fourth edition of the Nitto ATP Finals in Turin. The draw is set to take place on Thursday 7 November at approximately 12:45 p.m. CET, following the pre-tournament press conference.

In recognition of the first No.1s in the PIF ATP Rankings, and the most successful doubles team in history, the singles groups for this year's Nitto ATP Finals will be the Ilie Nastase Group and the John Newcombe Group, while the doubles groups will be the Bob Bryan Group and the Mike Bryan Group.

About The Nitto ATP Finals

The Nitto ATP Finals is the year-end climax to the men's professional tennis season, featuring only the world's best eight qualified singles players and doubles teams as they battle it out for the last title of the season. Players compete for PIF ATP Rankings points throughout the season in a bid to earn one of the eight coveted berths and a chance to win the biggest indoor tennis tournament in the world. Played using a round-robin format, each player plays three matches as they compete for a berth in the knockout semi-finals and beyond. The prestigious tournament has been contested in major cities around the world with a rich history dating back to the birth of The Masters in 1970 in Tokyo. Since 2000 the event has taken place in cities such as Lisbon, Sydney, Shanghai and London. The tournament has been held in Turin since 2021.
