ATP PARTNERS WITH OFX TO ENHANCE FINANCIAL SERVICES

LONDON: ATP has today announced a global partnership with OFX, a leading global payments company working with businesses and individuals to help manage and simplify their FX needs. The collaboration will unlock significant enhancements to financial services across the ATP Tour.

OFX will provide a range of global payment solutions to ATP, including prize money payments, a prize money player platform, and corporate FX transactions. The partnership aims to simplify payment processes, enhance data security, and expedite payments for players in their preferred currency.

"Last season the ATP Tour delivered a record US$230 million in compensation to players all over the world," said Daniele Sanò, ATP Chief Business Officer. "OFX's services will help us optimise our financial operations, add value to players, and create efficiencies across our global ecosystem. Our partnership is a true brand fit."
